Learn More about Historic Preservation: Exhibit of West Orange Designated Sites Opens at West Orange Public Library

April 1, 2014 – WEST ORANGE, NJ -- The West Orange Historic Preservation Commission (WOHPC) invites the public to attend an opening reception for a new, permanent photography exhibit at the West Orange Public Library. The event will be on Thursday, April 10 from 7 to 8 PM. The exhibit spotlights the 10 Township properties that have been designated by the Commission as architecturally and/or historically significant.

"We are indebted to photographer Heidi Sussman of the West Orange Arts Council for volunteering to commemorate our local historic structures," said Commission Chair Brian Feeney. Sussman, who will be in attendance along with other Commission and WOAC members, also orchestrated the installation.

"It is only through local designation that these buildings can be protected," Feeney said.

The Commission is one of only four municipalities in NJ chosen to receive a Certified Government Grant of $24,500. The grant will underwrite two in-depth architectural surveys. The first is of the St. Cloud neighborhood and the second is along Main Street.

"We have long needed to update the West Orange Site Survey, originally completed in 1992," said Feeney. "This grant will make it possible to complete Phase 1 of a new survey that will be a great resource for the Township."
