WOPD warns businesses about fake bills

WEST ORANGE, N.J. (WOPD) March 8, 2017– The West Orange Police Department is warning businesses after three township locations recently received counterfeit money.

Fake $100 bills were found at Main Street and Essex Green locations.

The suspect in these incidents is described as a black male about six-feet tall, thin build with facial hair and wearing glasses, a red jacket and black sweat pants.

Area businesses should be aware that counterfeit bills could be difficult to spot.

If you suspect that you have been given counterfeit money, you are encouraged to contact West Orange Police at 973-325-4000.
