

Voices of Diversity, Uniting for Change

An Event Sponsored by

The United Presbyterian Church Of West Orange

Celebrating the beautiful ethnic, racial, social, and religious diversity of our community and our country through music, dance, testimonials, and food

This is a free, public event

Saturday, September 22, 2018 10:00 a.m. - 2 p.m.

Location: 20 Old Indian Rd., West Orange, NJ 07052

Voter registration applications will be available at this event along with information on social and environmental issues. This event was inspired by the song RESIST by musician Kim Moberg (kimmobergmusic.com) encouraging Americans to push for reasonable and humane solutions to issues vital to the health and well being of this nation, through voting and legislation.

Event participants and attendees include Mayor Robert Parisi and West Orange Council members, Rodolfo Rodriguez, of the Hispanic Foundation, Gay/Straight Alliance, West Orange African Heritage Organization, West Orange Library, League of Women Voters, West Orange Arts Council, Rescue US, NJ EPA, exciting musicians and performers, (additional attendee confirmations coming)! Bring family, friends, neighbors, first-time voters!

For more information contact Jann Carden Event Coordinator: 201-248-2371