HISTORY OF THE WEST ORANGE JUNIOR POLICE ACADEMY

The West Orange Junior Police Academy (W.O.J.P.A.) was established in 2000 as a joint venture between The West Orange Police Department and The West Orange Board of Education. The program was established to help curtail juvenile delinquency and deviant behavior committed by middle school-aged children. The annual W.O.J.P.A. seeks to foster an understanding of public safety, and teaches respect and proper behavior during the critical stages of child and adolescent development. The W.O.J.P.A. seeks to reduce juvenile delinquency, promote better relationships between police officers and youths, encourage responsible citizenship and promote good peer behavior and good communication skills through innovative and exciting programming.

The goal is for the W.O.J.P.A. Cadets to participate in a pseudo junior police academy, while having fun in the process. In the past, the W.O.J.P.A. included presentations from the following agencies;
